FEBRUARY Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month

Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) is most prevalent during adolescence, when youth are impressionable and vulnerable during these developmental times. How are you modeling healthy relationship practices for our youth now, to prevent violence in their future?

"Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate them." -James Baldwin

APRIL Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Tips for Healthy Sexuality: Know your limits. Stand up for yourself. Communicate your boundaries. Ask for permission. Don't challenge or deny the "no." Don't assume or expect a "yes." Respect, respect, respect. Ask, ask, ask.

SEPTEMBER Annual Benefit Gala

Join us for a night of feasting and celebration at our biggest event of the year!

September 10, 2020

OCTOBER Domestic Violence Awareness Month

IPV is about power and control. Not all violence leaves visible scars. Sometimes the harm comes from instilling fear, guilt, and shame. Implement healthy relationship practices: ask to understand, not blame or judge; share in each other's honest emotions; practice empathy for yourself and for the other; provide equal space and opportunity.

FY 2018-2019

Annual Report

CENTER FOR THE
PACIFIC ASIAN FAMILY
NURTURING CHANGE TOGETHER

BRYAN WEN

CLASS OF 2020
SAN GABRIEL HIGH SCHOOL

"CPAF has taught me a lot about how I should treat others, but more importantly, what I can do to help others. Hearing about what CPAF does in the community has been inspiring; the deeds motivate me to do more than just raise awareness, it makes me want to take action."

Did you know... Sexuality is a taboo topic in API communities, and Asian American youth report knowing less than their peers regarding sex and sexual health, making them more vulnerable to sexual abuse.

- CPAF runs the only rape crisis center supporting API survivors in California.
- Last year, we assisted 539 survivors of sexual assault, speaking 11 languages.
- Last year, we trained 71 youth to become peer counselors and youth leaders working to end dating and sexual violence in their schools and communities. To date we have worked with and trained 173 youth since 2015.
- Over 50% of CPAF's shelter residents are children & youth.
- CPAF runs the only emergency shelter supporting immigrant API domestic violence survivors in SoCal.
- Last year, we sheltered 128 individuals speaking 12 languages, all the while renovating one of our facilities with support from W.M. Keck Foundation, the Ahmanson Foundation, and S. Mark Taper Foundation.

UNITED AGAINST VIOLENCE

We are individuals, families and communities united against violence—parents, children, relatives, partners, friends, neighbors, coworkers, teammates, and colleagues.

We are all united against violence.

We are united in building a world where every person is valued and inspired to help each other, because all of us deserve to live free of violence.

Speak up, share, and help.

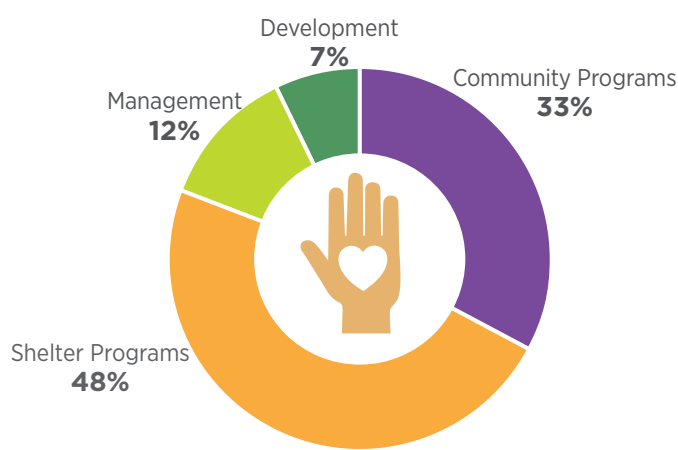

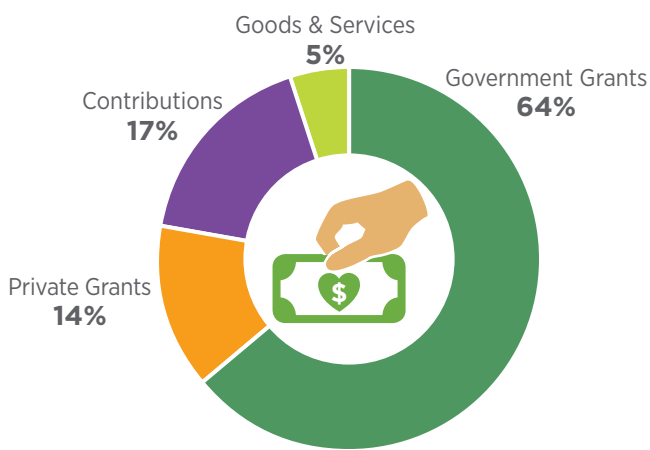

Break through the silence and prevent harm from occurring. Now, more than ever, is the time to join our mission to end violence.
